

6516206816.txt

Please do not set a dangerous precedent of allowing established companies to deny a new technology the right to broadcast programming they want to control. This is just short of Facism. Think of where society would be today if every time a new technology was restrained, some entity stepped in to squash it. This has happened through the marketplace, but should never happen due to lobbying the government. Reject NAB's petition 04-160.